

Northwest Classic Recap

The second week of competition had the Titan Harriers competing on their home course at Lane. The men started the morning covering a 4-mile course, while the women raced a 5 kilometer for the second week in a row.

Once again the men ran with an incomplete team only racing four, and therefore not competing in the team standings for a second consecutive week. Travis Stevens (SO) led the 4-mile race the entire way, and came in strong to out lean the runner-up and win in a time of 21:10. This was his first race of the season, and his first individual Cross Country win. Sterling Teall (FR) was Lane's second man across the line for the second week in a row, finishing in the top ten in a time of 21:51. Michael Bellamy (FR) raced strongly again to finish in 22:49. Erik Bateham (FR) rounded out the Lane runners with a time of 24:03 in his first race of the season.

The women ran a complete team of five ladies who tied for second, but finished 3rd place after considering the sixth runner. MaCayla Claver (FR) led the first mile to eventually finish third overall in a time 19:32. Like last week, the rest of the women's team stuck together for most the race and came in within 1 minute of each other. Andrea Gruber (SO) ran the most consistent race coming in at 20:06, Rita Krantz (FR) moved up in team spots to finish in a time of 20:42, Alayna Oleksa (FR) was not far behind in 20:54, and Anne Hagy (SO) rounded out the scoring five in 22:01.

Coach Scholl was, "Pleased with several of the performances", but felt that "the team looked a little flat today." "We worked hard this week and used this meet as another shake out and tune up for the meets later in the season. I still think we're on pace to race strong when we need to!"
